

“I have known and worked with Larry Wilson for many years in a number of projects. He is a really solid facilitator and was a great help to our efforts to focus the organizations on goals and process. The Wilson Organization would be a good choice to work with on a number of business development projects.”

Dan Shedd, President, Taylor Box Company

